

A physician graduated from a recognized medical school and in good professional standing in his community may be appointed to teach Junior, Standard and Advanced Courses. An adult 20 years or over who has satisfactorily completed the Special Course may be considered for appointment to teach Junior, Standard and Advanced Courses. Only Special Instructors, usually members of the National Red Cross staff, are given authority to teach the Special Course. An Instructor's Outline is available for those who teach.

THE TEXTBOOK

The Red Cross First Aid Textbook, Revised, is the basis of study and instruction in all the courses here outlined. It is not compulsory in the Junior Course that each student have a copy, but the textbook is required to be in the hands of all students in the Standard, Advanced and Special Courses. This is a 256 page book which sells for 60¢ per copy and is obtainable through the local Chapter, the National Headquarters or Area Offices.
