Dear Dr. Allen:

Possibly you have heard that because you are such a swell fellow I'm teaching as an assistant in the Hyandatte High School. I'm taking this opportunity to thank you for doing me the grand favor. Really, I feel you are responsible for my lucky break. You see, I had a contract for Concordia, and Prof. Albaugh wrote a little piece in the paper about me. He said you recommended me highly; also Prof. Schlegel here spoke of your recommendation. I really can't imagine what fancy words you pulled out of the bag to use on me, but I'm keeping my fingers crossed in hopes the truth doesn't
