

February 10, 1939.

Mr. Fred Wedeking,
Campus Inn,
Beardstown, Illinois.

Dear Mr. Wedeking:

I am glad to receive your letter as of February 6, written me from your Campus Inn at Beardstown, Illinois, thanking me for the picture that I autographed for you.

I want you to know it was a pleasure to autograph the picture. I had a good time when I came to your place in company with Mr. John Glenn.

Mr. Glenn is about the best good luck charm that we have had in Lawrence, Kansas, for a long time. He wrote me that he sat on the bench with Coach Lonborg when Northwestern beat Minnesota, and he also informed me that he was going to come to our Oklahoma Aggie-Kansas game to be the good luck charm for us against them. Well, this is exactly what it turned out to be because Mr. Glenn not only lent his enthusiastic support but he talked to the fellows before the game started and gave them a fine pep talk. I am very sure that his presence contributed materially to our victory. He is a swell fellow and everybody liked him very much. If we ever go through Beardstown, John Glenn will be number one on the list and the Campus Inn will be the second place we will stop.

I do not know whether you listen to radio station WREN or not, but the other night when they broadcast our game they mentioned that Mr. Glenn was in our midst and they gave him quite a build-up. They also announced it over the public address system at the game. I thought you might want to know this, being a fine friend of Mr. Glenn.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
