Dear Woody:

My Christmas present is rather belated. I fully expected to get Santa Claus to bring this over, but I have failed to do it, and now I am getting one of my basketball players, Nelson Sullivan, to do the job Santa was supposed to do. He proved to be Santa Claus in one or two of our games, but didn't pan out right for the Sooners.

Anyhow, I hope you enjoy The Tales of Yesterday in the back of the book.

Sincerely yours,
