Dear Phog:

The extra copies department's girl tells me we're out of The Sunday World-Herald that carried my review of your very interesting book.

I'm sorry, but that's how it is. Why there was a big demand for copies of that edition I do not know--and being naturally so darned modest, I hesitate to attribute it to the review.

There's a chance the gal may run across a copy. If she does, be assured I'll see you get it.

Sincerely always,

Frederick Ware
