

March 1, 1938.

Mr. Henry C. Widmer,
Pittsburg, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Widmer:

I am in receipt of your wire this morning, and have asked Mr. Earl Falkenstein, our financial secretary, to reserve two tickets for you for the Missouri-Kansas game Thursday night.

Since our victory over Oklahoma and Nebraska we have been swamped with orders for tickets for the Missouri game. Under the conditions, I am sure Mr. Falkenstein will do the best he can for you. The tickets will be held in your name at the ticket office.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
