Dear "Fog":

There are times when a man is entitled to know that his friends are particularly elated over his accomplishments. I am writing you to simply state that for numerous reasons, which need not be mentioned herein, that the Wedell family is one family which was especially pleased with each and every victory you had during the past season.

I might say too that the wonderful ovation you received during the Missouri game warmed my own heart a good deal. I shall tell you some other things when I see you.

Always with kindest regards and best wishes, I remain,

Cordially yours,

W:H
