Dear Dr. —

When my mother called me from outside and informed me that a package had been delivered to me from you I was certainly pleased. Your wife had informed me in a back letter that you were to publish a new book, I was anticipating owning one. Then again I was wondering "if it could be done in three times" It was great. Told my neighbor (who had just dropped in about it.) that it was better than if the president had given it to me. It was the best present present received and will always
