

(3) Coordinate the programs of state agencies which may properly be utilized in the administration of various aspects of the problems of veterans, and dependents of veterans, such as the department of social welfare, the unemployment compensation division of the department of labor and industry, the department of public instruction, the board of vocational education, the board of regents, the board of managers and any other state office, department, board or commission furnishing services to veterans or their dependents.

(4) Provide a central contact between federal agencies dealing with the problems of veterans and their dependents, such as the veterans' administration, selective service, office of education, social security board, war and navy departments, and other federal and state agencies which may administer various services for veterans and their dependents.

(5) Maintain central case records of all cases handled by the department to facilitate the interchange of case histories among state administrative agencies and to provide a clearing house of information.

(6) Provide such services to veterans and their dependents as are not otherwise offered by federal agencies.

(7) Provide a central agency to which veterans and their dependents may turn for information and assistance.

Sec. 5. Reports and recommendations of director. The director shall make such reports to the governor as shall be requested by the governor, together with such recommendations as he shall deem advisable.

Sec. 6. Office of veterans' affairs not to file claims with the veterans' administration. The office of veterans' affairs shall not be empowered to file application for or to prosecute the claim of any individual for any benefit accruing to such individual under the laws administered by the United States veterans' administration.
