Dear Phog:

I assume you will go ahead then with appointing Finn Jensen for the skiing.

Sam Anderson, instructor in German, is another expert skier who has had considerable skiing experience in Austria, and possibly he would like to help.

The question of a director of recreation seems to me to be pretty much of an administrative problem on which the Senate really couldn't go much further than to make a suggestion. It comes down, really, I suppose, to a question of organization and of finances. I don't think you need ever to feel that you must await Senate action for a thing like this, but I don't quite see at the moment how we would work it out. Any time you have any suggestions, however, let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Deane W. Malott
Chancellor
