Dear Phog:

Thanks very much for sending me the copy of your letter to Mr. Hough and Mr. McClure.

I also want to express my appreciation for your prompt action in regard to the complaint about the sailors down on the field.

I think we must be careful to keep all of these various groups under as tight a line as possible in this sort of thing or we shall be under undue criticism and our public relations will suffer.

I especially appreciate the prompt way in which you acted to straighten the thing out.

Sincerely yours,
