

August 13, 1943.

Chancellor Deane W. Malott,
University of Kansas.

Dear Chancellor Malott:

I desire to thank you most cordially for the invitation to your dinner party honoring Mr. R. H. Jones. I enjoyed every minute of it.

I invited myself as Henry Shenk's guest to Kiwanis Club on a Dutch treat basis because I was so anxious to hear Mr. Jones. His talk to the Kiwanians was highly interesting and on an entirely different angle, but it gave us a definite insight to what the English are really giving up. Such a talk to every man and woman in America would be a great thing for our morale. And perhaps it would cut out some of the beefing on the part of some people who feel sorry for themselves on account of taxes and some rationing.

Very sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.