him in 5th place for the squad. In errors for ball handling, he rated first with a rate of 1.13%. As a guard he had an opportunity to recover rebounds off the opponent's backboard to such an extent that he rated No. 2 for the squad on a basis of rebounds per minute. He passed the ball more than he caught it, and on the basis of shots per minute there are only 3 players who took less shots. This player is 12th on the basis of personal fouls committed per minute. The data indicate that he was an excellent ball handler, and a good rebound recoverer, but he did not shoot enough. On the basis of efficiency his coach, teammates and freshmen rated him ninth.

Player H. Forward.

Player H was a forward with 74.5 minutes of playing time to his credit. He earned 344 evaluation points and 30 score points, made 13 baskets (30.2%) and 4 free throws (66.7%). This player also had the highest number of shots attempted per minute of play. On the basis of player efficiency he rated 93.0%. But on his ball handling ability he had an error rating of 6.2%, or 5 times that of players A and G. He was the 8th player on the basis of time played and he ranked 8th on the basis of personal fouls. When it came to passing and catching the ball, he made 22 more catches than passes. This player was a good scorer but he shot more than any other player per minute of play. He made too many errors in ball handling and in this department he ranked 13th. He ranked 7th on his playing efficiency, and the players rated him 10th, the coach 11th, and the freshmen 12th.

Player I. Forward.

Player I was in the games for 70.5 minutes as a forward. He earned 395 evaluation points and 16 score points, and made 7 goals for 21.2% and threw 2 fouls for 33.3%. On the basis of personal fouls per minute he was number one man with less than any other member of the squad. He had a ball handling error rating of 4.0% and a playing efficiency of 91.7%. As a forward he recovered enough balls from the opponent's backboard per minute to rank as the No. 2 man of the squad. He also was the No. 3 man in recovering the ball off his own backboard, and he ranked 3rd on the basis of total recoveries per minute. In the amount of playing time this player ranked 9th and on the basis of playing efficiency he also ranked 9th. Like the other forwards, he also caught the ball more than he passed it and ranked 3rd in the attempted goals per minute of playing time. This player was good at recovering rebounds, not too good a shot, and among the 3 players to have an error rating over 4%. He did not commit many personal fouls. He was rated 7th by the players, and 8th by the coach and freshmen.

Player J. Forward.

This man had a playing time of 40 minutes. During this time he made 8 score points, 3 goals (16.7%), 2 free throws (40%), and earned 395 evaluation points. His error rating in ball handling was 3.1% and his playing efficiency rated at 91.6%.
He was 10th in the amount of time in home games and ranked 10th in playing efficiency.
As a forward he recovered the ball off his own backboard to rank 3rd on the per minute basis, and caught the ball more than he passed it. As a forward he was not a good shot as only one boy on the squad had a lower rank and the player who was lower did not make a basket in his five attempts. He was ranked 8th by his teammates, 6th by the coach and 7th by the freshmen.
