

Exhibit C

DIRECTIONS

Consider the following items of the player's offensive ability:

1. His scoring ability.
2. His ability to recover rebounds.
3. His ability to pass accurately.
4. His ability to receive the ball on passes.
5. His ability to recover jump balls.
6. His ability to avoid held balls.

After considering the above points, rate the players in the alphabetical list from 1 to 13. The player you consider best should be rated number 1, and the poorest should be numbered 13.
