
EXHIBITS—

Commercial. These are located on the Mezzanine Floor. You are urged to get acquainted with the exhibitors and their products.

Educational. A variety of exhibits of interest to all will be in the States Suite on the Mezzanine Floor. New material in physical education and related fields as well will be shown.

HUMPHREY-WEIDMAN DANCE RECITAL—

At 8:00 P. M. on Friday evening, the delegates are all invited to attend the program by Doris Humphrey, Charles Weidman and their group, to be held at Central High School, Twelfth and Jackson Streets. This is a courtesy feature given by Sioux City for the benefit of the delegates attending the convention. Delegates with badges will receive tickets at the Registration Desk.

INFORMATION SERVICE—

Parlor 224—on Mezzanine Floor.

Information relative to educational visits, lost and found articles, and general information can be secured at the Information Desk. Watch bulletin board for announcements.

MEETINGS—

All meetings will begin promptly and doors will be closed. Co-operation is asked in making it possible for the presiding officers to follow these instructions. Meeting rooms are in the Hotel Martin unless otherwise stated.

OPEN MEETING—

Because of the widespread interest expressed in the fourth general session, at which Dr. Maud Slye and Dr. George D. Stoddard will be the speakers, the Convention Committee has arranged it as an open meeting, and cordially invites all interested persons to attend as guests of the Association. The meeting will be held on Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock in the Ball Room of the Hotel Martin.

REUNION LUNCHEONS (Thursday)—

Watch bulletin board for announcements.

SCHOOL VISITATION PROGRAM—

Physical education programs may be observed in Sioux City Public Schools, Parochial Schools, Morningside College, Briar Cliff College, and Trinity College on Wednesday, March 29, between the hours of 9:00 A. M. and 3:30 P. M. Detailed information will be furnished to delegates at the Registration Desk. Transportation will be furnished to delegates upon presentation of convention badge.
