

(W. P. L., #4)

vail. It may be worse for several generations and it may be better. I believe our leaders have visions of a new order. They themselves do not know whether it will be better or worse. At the end of this war Germany, Britain, Japan and America will be bankrupt financially. The challenge to statesmanship is to see that we are not bankrupt morally and spiritually.

Sincerely yours,

P

M. F. AMRINE