

which five blindfolded men boxed.

Dick participated in that as well as the other sports and really enjoyed them.

That's about all the news from him, but I did want to send you his address in case he doesn't get a chance to before the next newsletter comes out. He certainly enjoys your newsletters and I do, too. — In fact we used to fight over which one of us would get to read them first! In many cases, ^{they} have been the only way of keeping track of friends we haven't seen for months. It's really a great service to your "K U boys" (as well as their wives) and they really do appreciate it.

Dick's address is -
