

February 7, 1945.

Mr. Frank Spawr, Jr.,
c/o Lion Oil Refining Co.,
El Dorado, Arkansas.

Dear Frank:

Your good friend and mine, Glenn E. Charlton, of Lawrence, has asked me to autograph and send you one of my new texts, "Better Basketball". Mr. Charlton is one of our foremost sports enthusiasts in Lawrence and a real friend of the boys. He never misses an opportunity to bring to them a chance to better themselves physically and mentally.

These fundamentals described in this book are used by our varsity basketball team, as well as the plays. Besides the fundamentals of the game, there is a chapter on the treatment of athletic injuries, and in the back of the book there are seven doggone good stories, I think. I know you will be interested in them. They are stories of football and basketball games which are true stories, and are not fluffed up a bit. These are about teams which I coached, and in these highlights I have tried to bring out what goes on inside and outside the dressing room of our varsity teams.

I trust that you enjoy the book, and I would be glad to hear from you if there are questions you would like to ask.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH