Dear Doc -
Just read a copy of "Joffawker Rebounds" and really enjoyed it. Passed it on to another old K.V. boy in my Squadron, Lt. C. E. Sherwood. He is from out near Dodge City.

Have made recent missions over Italy and France and must say the Nazis can still put up plenty of flak. And it aint bon-bons they throw at us. We are pushing them back but the job ahead is still rugged. Don't be over-optimistic for an early victory!!

Am situated on the Isle of Corfica, Napoleon's old home-land (I'll Prof. Melvin in Viet. Dept). Also have seen Isle of Elba. The French here are a hardy race and make excellent mines, cognacs, etc. The country itself is quite beautiful and very much like the Missouri Ozarks. However that K.V. campus will look one helluva lot better! You and Mr. Quigley don't hurt the old campus either. Hope we get some football half as good as those basketball teams of yours. Give Mrs. Allen, Milt, and Bob, my very best and more power to "Joffawker Rebounds".
Yours,
Bob Charlton
