Dear Doc,

Due to circumstances it will be impossible for me to return to school next semester. I'm terribly sorry but then, I'm young and at the first chance I'll pursue my education.

I have been pretty ^{busy} since returning home. Work at the store during the day and officiating ball games every evening. I get a chance. So far this season I have worked thirteen basketball games and have six remaining to be worked.

Last Friday night I had one of the biggest thrills of my life. I was working a ball game at Walnut and at the expiration of regular playing time the score was tied. Immediately I went to the scorers table where both coaches were waiting for me. I quoted them the rules governing the overtime play
