Dear Heinie:

I acknowledge with thanks your very good letter of the 17th instant. It was not necessary at all for you to send that 30¢ along, Heinie, I assure you.

You certainly didn't get your money's worth when you saw Kansas play Indiana because Kansas was off and Indiana was sizzling hot. I appreciate your sympathy and good wishes regarding the loss of the game. You are always a great old scout when it comes to Kansas and your loyalty to me.

Thank you, Heinie, for your complimentary paragraph regarding Bob. I took your letter home and read it to Bob and Bess and the family, and they all said that Heinie is a grand old scout. When I am in Kansas City some time soon I am going to call you up and invite you to eat lunch with me and we will renew the old times when we battled together.

With all good wishes to you, old fellow, I am

Sincerely yours,
