

of the two above-mentioned teams with the Sooners at Norman, and the fact that the Sooners have only one game against the cellar team - Iowa State - makes it almost a mathematical certainty.

You can bet your life that we will go down to play the Sooners the game of our lives, but if the gamblers or prognosticators would say that the Sooners didn't have it sewed up in the bag, then I would make the statement that such a guesser was an inhabitant of Mars who had not been able to look in on this little world of ours.

Yes, sir, pardner, from my angle it honestly looks like if Oklahoma could lose or should lose such a championship, then I would say that the only thing causing such a catastrophe would be the fact that the players down there on the first team must all be going with cross-eyed, left-handed girls. That is the only way I could explain the situation.

I will be glad to see you Tuesday morning, but I wanted to get this to you before your coming down so that if you have an opportunity to write such a statement I would appreciate it.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
