Mrs. Carl H. Cooper, 916 Mo. 6th Street, Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Mas Coopers

ment in the Athletic Office to see Mr. Earl Falkenstien, the financial secretary, and there just aren't any good seats left in the "K" section, or seats that we would like to give you had we been athletic director.

However, Mr. Falkenstien did the very best he could and has made reservation for four seats. He used special care in getting the best he had under the conditions. You may rest assured if there were any good seats to be had that you and your family would be placed there, not only on your account but on account of your good dad, "O.K."
Billy Willismson. I was always very fond of him. He was a grand man and an inspiration to all young Americans.

With every good wish, I em those we can get stere in Kansas I We didn't know we were going to be able to get off work until it was almost too late to get tickets. we'd appreciate any help you can give us. We'll call at the athletic office about noon or, if we arrive too late, we'll go to the stadium window. Thanking you for your kindnesses in the fast. I always feel Father ie at these games in spirit since he looked forward to them so long. Sincerely, (mrs. Carl E.) Virginia Williamson Cooper November 23, 1939.

Mr. Claude Cochran, American Life Insurance Co., Commerce Building, Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Claudes

It is very nice of you to think of me and invite me to the K.U.-M.U. pre-game football rally, but I previously planned to have some out of town guests in our home. As they happen to be both men and women his. Allen would consider it a breach of etiquette and eventually I would be indicted and perhaps convicted and executed if I left. So I thank you for your kind invitation and regret that I cannot be with you.

Director of Physical Education and Recreation, Varsity Basketball Coach from the desk of CLAUDE COCHRAN KANSAS CITY, MO. November 21, 1939 Mr. Forest G. Allen, Basketball Coach Kansas University Lawrence, Kansas Dear"Phog" We have changed the date and place of our annual K.U.-M.U. pre-game football rally, and have now decided that it will be held at the Boulevard Manor, the old Steuben Club, Armour and Forest, Kenses City, Missouri. We have asked the football staff to be represented at the Rally, naturally, and if it is at all possible for you to get away on that evening, I would like to extend to you a personal invitation to be with us. We have been fortunate enough to secure "Alf" Landon as our principal speaker and we have a swell program planned. Sincerely CHIEF QUARTERBACK CVC CM

Welborn, Kansas December 4, 1939 Dear Doctor allen _ Just a note (though a little late) to thank you for your kindness in securing tickets for me a week ago for the big game". I didn't expect you to answer my letter to you and I do greatly appreciate your interest.

Our seats were wonderful -we saw all the important events of the game, although when the south goal was m. U's we were all eager not to see so much of the game. & glande at the registration at the Union Building showed none of the 1890-95 group back. Of course there may have been one of two in Lawrence who didn't sign the book. That ie, perhaps, the saddest part of each Homecoming-- so many of them (the old timers) are gone. again, my sincère thanks to you. Do you suppose sometimes, in my meager way, I could return the favor? I høge so. Lincerely - Virginia Williamson, Cooper (mrs. carl E.)

John E. Carlson, attorney, counsellor and friend to youth, Rotarian and educator, but to us "Swede", a great athlete of an "ever-victorious" epoch, went on and made "All American" in life's strenuous competition.

John Carlson came up the hard way, but the honest way.

The son of a Swedish immigrant, this boy who carried a Kansas City Star route in Kansas City, Kansas, during his high school days, quit this high school because his father advised him to marry and settle down early.

The father argued that the income from this lucrative newspaper route was sufficient. He chose the alternative.

John was a great catcher on his high school team. Without him the team was impotent. The firement of Kansas City, Kansas, waited on John's father and persuaded him to allow John to return to high school to play on the high school team and incidentally to graduate. In the early days the fire stations turned out fine baseball teams and it was only natural that the firemen would be interested in the success of John and his high school team. It was prophetic that a wreath from the Kansas City, Kansas, firemen occupied the central location at the bier showing the long and mutual affection.

The following year "Swede" matriculated at the University of Kansas where his fame as a baseball player far outshone his brilliance on the gridiron. It is rather significant of John Carlson that he always was in the center of things. In baseball he chose the position back of the plate, and on the football field he played the roving center position.

"No passed balls" and "no player through his position" were two of his axioms for which he indefatigably fought. "Swede" Carlson had no peer on the intercollegiate gridiron or on the diamong. He made the "All Time" team of each.

John Carlson played ball because he loved it. But in playing brilliantly he introduced himself favorably to business and to society. After graduating from the Law School of the University of Kansas, John Carlson returned to his home city, Kansas City, Kansas, and began the practice of law. Years ago John told me the story of his first trial case in the Federal Court.

John Carlson said, "My knees were knocking together and the Federal judge saw that I was scared to death. My head began to swim. Finally Judge Pollook looked down from over his glasses and said, 'Go ahead, Swede, I've seen you play football lots of times!"

"Gosh", said Swede, "that was all that I needed! I tore into that case and won it. I've always remembered that incident and I have always tried to pass the word of encouragement on to youth."

As president of the Board of Education of his home city, as Senator from his district and as one of the key men of his commonwealth, John Carlson ever justified the faith that men of all creeds and color had in him. Youth loved him because he had an understanding sympathy with their proglems. He is not dead because he lives in the hearts of youth!

Dear June:

It is swell of you and the Coen family to always be remembering the Allens. You are a great outfit.

We were happy indeed to win that ball game. It was a tough one. Dick Harp and Don Ebling played phenomenal ball, and I know you would have been very proud of your brothers in the bond.

We will be happy to see you and Ben Bond in Warrensburg. The game was originally called for 7:30, but will be called at 8 p.m. I thought I would let you know.

Expecting to see you Friday night, and with all good wishes, I am

Dear Doc:

Congratulations on a swell start to another big year. The Coen, Jrs are expecting an addition in the early spring and so it is a little hard to make all the games however Ben Bond and I are driving to Warrensburg to see you tan their hides Friday. I was talking to their coach the other day and I guess he has a very tall bunch of boys. So much the harder they fall:

Anyway good luck and may the thirtieth year be the biggest one of all.

Yours very truly,

Mr. John F. Carmody, Director of Athletics, Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear John:

Thank you very much for your kindness in sending me two season passes to your athletic events. This is very thoughtful of you, and I trust that it will be possible for me to witness some of your events during the winter.

With best wishes for a most successful season,

Very sincerely yours,

Immediately upon receipt of your letter of the 10th instant I conferred with Mr. Barl Falkenstien, financial secretary of the Athletic Association, and learn that 2580 tickets have been sent to the Athletic Office at the University of Missouri. These seats are in sections L-M-M-O, the center of the field, on the Missouri side.

The best seats we have left here on the Missouri side are on the 15-yard line. I believe your best bet would be for you to get in touch with the Missouri officials for the better seats.

It was a pleasure to hear from you. With all good wishes, I am

Dear Dr. Allen:-

I am in need of five tickets to the Kansas-Missouri game at Lawrence, on November 25th, and I wish you would make reservation for five for me on the Missouri side, and advise me by return mail the amount and I will send check immediately.

Not knowing exactly whomto write, I am bothering you with this request as I am acquainted with you through our meetings in Kansas City.

In the event that the tickets for this particular game on the Missouri side are being sold at Columbia, I would appreciate you advising, so that I may make proper contact there.
