Mr. Claude Cochran,
American Life Insurance Co.,
Commerce Building,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Claude:

It is very nice of you to think of me and invite me to the K.U.-M.U. pre-game football rally, but I previously planned to have some out of town guests in our home. As they happen to be both men and women Mrs. Allen would consider it a breach of etiquette and eventually I would be indicted and perhaps convicted and executed if I left. So I thank you for your kind invitation and regret that I cannot be with you.

Sincerely yours,
