

Our seats were wonderful -- we saw all the important events of the game, although when the south goal was M. U.'s we were all eager not to see so much of the game.

A glance at the registration at the Union Building showed none of the 1890-95 group back. Of course there may have been one ^{or} two in Lawrence who didn't sign the book. That is, perhaps, the saddest part of each Homecoming -- so many of them (the old timers) are gone.

Again, my sincere thanks to you. Do you suppose sometimes, in my meager way, I could return the favor? I hope so.

Sincerely - Virginia Williamson, Cooper
(Mrs. Carl E.)
