

September 22, 1937.

Mr. John E. Carhoun,
Union Station Building,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear John:

Again I want to thank you for your extreme kindness in helping out with Jack Buckman. He went to the student hospital quite ill yesterday afternoon. Looks like a case of summer intestinal flu.

Of course, if he is in the hospital he will not be able to pay his fees tomorrow, the 23rd, which is the deadline, but I am sure the committee on late enrollment will take that into consideration.

If you are able to get the $17.50 it will be greatly appreciated as I believe the boy now understands more about the educational situation.

I took the matter up regarding Ted Kenny and we are arranging to have Ted and Jack room together. I have Nelson Sullivan as my intermediary and chief adviser to Jack. J. D. Richardson is also cooperating with him, but Sullivan is really all that anyone would want in making a freshman feel welcome in a new place. Sullivan knows the dangers from association with Bill and Frank. The last names I have omitted, but you know the ones I mean. It looks as if they won't stay very long in this environment.

Renko is a great boy and I believe will do splendidly. He is not staying at the same place that Bill, Ted and Frank are staying. Their address is 1414 Tennessee Street.

J. D. Richardson's fraternity, I understand, was asking Ted Kenny to move up to the house, but I have just learned that he has decided to stay where he is. I am very glad to get the information regarding Ted's financial background. At the first opportunity I want Ted to come to the office so I can talk to him. I believe I can do him some good.