

February 9, 1938.

Mr. Bernard Crandell,
United Press Association,
Indianapolis Bureau,
Times Building,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Mr. Crandell:

In answer to your kind favor of the 7th instant, I believe the best thing to do would be to interview the officials of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. They are as follows:

President, George R. Edwards, University of Missouri,
Columbia, Missouri.
First Vice President, W. S. Changler, Marquette University.
Second Vice President, B. T. Grover, Ohio University.
Third Vice President, Nat Holman, City College of New York.
Secretary-Treasurer, J. W. Bunn, Stanford University.

You know the coaches meet in Chicago at the Hotel Morrison on April 4 and 5. The rules meeting will follow the Coaches' Association meeting. They are taking a poll now to see where it will be held, either in Chicago or New York, but my opinion is that it will follow this meeting in Chicago on the 7th and 8th of April.

The membership of the National Basketball Rules Committee of the United States and Canada, as taken from Spalding's Official Guide for 1937-38, is as follows:

Chairman, L. W. St. John, Ohio State University
Vice Chairman, H. H. Salmon, Jr., 40 Wall St., New York
Secretary, H. V. Porter, 11 So. LaSalle St., Chicago
Treasurer, Floyd A. Rowe, Cleveland
Editor, Oswald Tower, Andover, Mass.
F. C. Allen, University of Kansas
Dr. John Brown, Jr., 347 Madison Ave., New York
J. W. Bunn, Stanford University
