Mr. Tus Ackerman,
Equitable Life Assurance Co.,
120 So. LaSalle St.,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Tus:

Your name looked mighty good on that foursome list of big shots that came to us just at the right time.

Of course, every basketball man at Kansas knows the tradition of Tus Ackerman and his prowess. Tus, it was good to hear from you, and frankly I want you to know that your wire gave me an added thrill.

I gave it to the kids like I used to talk to them when we played the Tigers. Do you remember that sound - Eat that Rock Chalk Jayhawk up! Eat that Rock Chalk Jayhawk up! Eat that Rock Chalk Jayhawk up! Yea, Tigers! Yea, Tigers! Mizou!! I can hear it yet in that 1922 game when you broke the Tigers' back. Well, we broke the Sooners' back.

Lots of luck to you, old fellow, and thanks for your wire.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
