Now, Bob, I do not want to scold, but it seems to me a fellow as old as you are ought to check up on some of these things before he leaves college. Don't leave this for somebody else to do because it entails a hardship on them. Let's grow fast, Bob.

Please give my kindest regards to your good dad and mother. They are fine people, but I am afraid you expect too much of them for a good, husky, intelligent chap like you.

Trusting that you show the stuff that you should be made of and that you are eligible and come back to school with a little more serious purpose in mind, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
