

but it is pretty hard to write what I want to know, when it can be said so easy.

Now for the business. I have your "ninth edition" 1931 Basket-ball Bible and was wondering if the books that they are offering for sale now are the same as that one. I know you intended putting out a new one, but did not know whether or not this was it. If you have any for sale or anything else that you think would benefit me, send it to above address and I will send you the money.

Thanking you again

I remain your most faithful Protege
