Dear Sir:

I have often wondered how a man of your importance, and as busy as you must be could take time off and answer my letters, but as you have always been so kind in the past I hope that my sincere thanks are sufficient to repay you.

We did not do so well last year on wins and losses and lost out in our first game in the tournament, but the majority of games lost were the one or two point kind. we just lacked the spark all season to put us across as winners.

I just wondered doctor, if in practice you make your boys work your set plays to the second, in timing, or just ~~so~~ set up the preliminaries and then depend upon their own speed and skill in scoring. I have been doing the latter, in other
