

I notice that you are at Flagstaff. I was down there during a couple of summers at a coaching school - I conducted the basketball and Pop Warner and Howard Jones had the football. It is a lovely place, and being so close to the GrandCanyon it affords about everything that a fellow would desire in that wide-open, beautiful country. There is a touch of ozone and a touch of romance there that we people on the flats do not get.

With sincerity, I am

Very cordially yours,
