Dear Dr. Allen:

Fortunately we have now settled the legal dispute surrounding the hooded jacket. Accordingly I am returning the three basketball sweaters, two of which have had the worn fasteners replaced. I am very grateful to you for lending me these, and I am glad that I don't have to keep them any longer. I hope they will reach you in time for the beginning of team practice.

I greatly appreciate your many kindnesses and the assistance you so cheerfully gave me when I was conducting the investigation. I wish you would tell me quite frankly what I can do to repay you.

Very truly yours,

T. L. Chisholm
Assistant Secretary
