Mr. L. W. St. John,
Ohio State University,
Columbus, Ohio.

Dear Saint:

I have delayed writing you upon receipt of copies of correspondence from Mr. Samuel Rogers.

Realizing that I am not on the executive committee and that I have no chips in the game, only as an outsider, I feel that I should express to you my conviction that Mr. Rogers has presented some very potent arguments, and it appears to me that the Canadian situation indicates that Mr. Rogers is deserving of much consideration.

I am very sure with your extreme sense of fairness that you will undoubtedly give Mr. Rogers a fulsome opportunity to present his argument. I believe he deserves such an opportunity to be heard.

Very sincerely yours,
