Dear Coach Carmody:

I am enclosing copy of the letter I have just received from Miss Ruth Hoover in regard to your fountain pen. We have checked up with the janitor of the gymnasium and he reports having found no pen in the gym when he cleaned.

So it looks like one of those things. I am very sorry that we are unable to locate the pen. If it turns up later, of course, we will notify you.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
