

June 21, 1938.

Mr. W. R. Lord,
Converse Rubber Co.,
Malden, Mass.

Dear Mr. Lord:

Thank you very much for your very kind remembrance in sending me a pair of basketball shoes from Chicago and two pairs from Malden. The rubbers will come in tip-top in rainy weather, and they are exactly the right size. I thank you for them.

I have already used the white low shoes for a basketball clinic in which quite an audience gathered the other evening. It was necessary for me to demonstrate the officiating and the technique of basketball, and I used these to good advantage in an all-white outfit. The shoes made the ensemble perfect.

It was very nice of you to do this, and I deeply appreciate it.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH