Dear Mr. Denbery:

Your letter concerning the persuasion of athletes to attend large institutions was very interesting to me. I appreciate very much your comments concerning my career and my attempts at cleaning up basketball.

Under the present set-up there is very little that can be done to alleviate the situation which you described. However, big men in the field of athletics are working daily on the situation. I hope that soon we shall have a set-up that shall better protect small institutions from so-called "robbery" of their material.

I am sorry that this letter was so long delayed.

With sincere regards, I am

Cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
