

a lot in his life time which makes me very proud to have been his ~~son~~ son.

I saw Chris Eberhart recently when he was on his way to Lwo Jima and we had a nice evening discussing K.U. I haven't heard anything about how he made out yet, but hope he is OK. I missed that show but no doubt will take in some of those to come.

They are keeping us very busy so I must cut this short. I managed to see a movie last night and who should appear but Craig Stevens (Gail Shikles). The movie was "Tough Girls."

Will write more later. I ask that you don't quote this letter in "Rebounds," Doc. Thanks!

Sincerely,
Jen
