Dear Johnny:

We mailed you one of our Jayhawk Rebounds and I trust that you have received it by now.

Kirk Scott's father came in this morning for a visit with his son. He told me of the sad passing of your father about two months ago. I had not learned it. I want to write you and express to you my sincere sympathy in the loss of your dad. I know that he meant so much to you, and I can appreciate the loneliness that you feel without him.

However, this is the law of life, Johnny. No family escapes, and we all must be ready for such a tragedy. I know that your common sense and ability to take things as they come will fortify you in your philosophies.

My sincerest sympathies to you, sir.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
