

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

19 Aug '43

Dear Brother Doc -

Your June issue of Jayhawk Rebounds just arrived providing me several minutes of interesting reading. If I may use slang, it's a mighty fine dope sheet.

Whom should I see the other day but Bill McKinley, now a Marine Corps captain; he has been out of the States for nearly two years but just now arrived in this area. Naturally, we "fatted the breeze" about old times at K.U. and Kansas City. He looks fine but is just as anxious as all of us to see this war through and make the return trip to the middle west U.S. Bill Jones is in a nearby camp, but I only see him occasionally.

I suppose Coach Shenk is about ready to start football practice. He probably won't have much to work with due to war
