Dear Mr. Doyle:

Thank you very much for your kind note of the 15th instant. You are such a kind-hearted man, Mr. Doyle, that you wouldn't send me a clipping like the one written by Everett Morris.

But I get it both ways, and I appreciate your thought of me. I enjoy a greeting from you as it is always a breath of fresh air and sunshine.

With kindest regards and appreciation for thinking of me, and an added thanks for putting your thoughts into action, I am

Very sincerely yours,
