

March 14, 1940.

Professor W. W. Davis,
Department of History,
University of Kansas.

Dear W. W.:

This is to express my genuine appreciation for the lovely things you said about the team and the compliment you paid me.

While men accept those things many times they fail to genuinely express their appreciation. You were so generous that you overwhelm me, but I want you to know that I have always considered you one of my real challengers. Thank you so much.

I am sorry that I rushed away and failed to personally express these sentiments to you. I missed you in the melee.

Devotedly yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH