Dear Coach,
Just finished reading your book "Better Basketball" and in my 6 years coaching experience have seen nothing that anything like compares with it. The most real information I have ever found. Now we have a problem and I wonder if you can give me some tips.

This year, we are encountering vicious, tough man-to-man defense all over the floor. In other words, when they score, the defense sets and sometimes we have difficulty getting ball in court not to even mention the 3 sec. line.

Cincinnati beat Kentucky this way and Kentucky beat Kansas State this way.

I wonder if you could give me information on above subject. Most coaches say use fact break, but we are drilled to fact break only when the offense has the defense out numbered and in the above case this isn't true.

Yours truly,
Bruce Dorsey.
