Dear Dr. Allen:

I am writing to congratulate you on the success of your basketball team during this season and to express my personal appreciation to you for inviting our high school band to Kansas City for last Friday night's program. It was an honor greatly appreciated by the band members, their parents and others connected with our school. The arrangements had been so carefully worked out that everything was perfect. The band people really had a wonderful time and saw two outstanding games of basketball. Your team helped to make the evening a success by winning their game.

We are all pulling for you and your boys next Saturday night and expect to be at the game to lend our vocal support.

Very cordially yours,

Clifford D. Dean
