

January 30, 1940.

Mr. Bruce Drake,
Basketball Coach,
University of Oklahoma,
Norman, Oklahoma.

Dear Bruce:

Congratulations on your wonderful victory over the Tigers last night!

I thought you did especially well at Lincoln to take care of those giant Huskers, but when you mowed them down a la Charlie McCarthy at Columbia, I say the laurels belong to the kid coach who coaches the Boy Scatters - those little fellows, you know.

Well, it looks like you and Mr. Henry Iba are going to battle it out for the right to represent the Fifth District in the N.C.A.A. championship go, and if you two do win your respective championship flights, then the game at Oklahoma City should really take on a battle of some significance.

This letter is just merely to congratulate you on doing a splendid job. Of course, we are going to give you a fight, but I am afraid before March 8th the championship will have been settled.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
