Professor W. A. Dill,
Department of Journalism,
University of Kansas.

Dear Mr. Dill:

I have waited long enough to send you this $20.00, and I thank you for the information and inspiration and cooperation that I gained from you in regard to this article for The Rotarian.

I am sending this check today because I am reminded of the fact that pay day is not until Saturday, at least, and maybe the gasoline is low in the tank.

With appreciation, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
