

July 28, 1938.

Mr. George Darrow,
c/o Phillips Petroleum Co.,
Hotel Greenwood,
Eureka, Kansas.

Dear George:

I am very happy to have your letter of July 24th and am glad to know that you are definitely interested in the University of Kansas. I assure you that we would be mighty happy to have you here and we are counting on seeing you in September.

I have just dictated a letter to Paul Endacott, the executive vice president of Phillips Petroleum Company, who is first assistant to Mr. Kenneth Adams, and I have asked him all the necessary information. I thought it would be better to ask Paul these questions than to write Mr. Adams about it. I know Mr. Adams very well. He played on our Freshman basketball team here and we called him "Boots", but the president should not be bothered with these things.

I have asked Paul about your seniority and so forth and about the possibility of working for Phillips next summer. Then when you come up here I can write Mr. Adams about the situation and then it will be easier for me to approach him than at the present time. He might think that I was trying to chisel a job out of him for you even before you went to school. We will work that out in good shape, I am sure.

It was a pleasure to have a visit with you, and I am counting on getting very much better acquainted with you when you come up and enroll.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
