Miss Ruth Kenney,
Secretary, Bureau of Correspondence Study,
University of Kansas.

Dear Miss Kenney:

Wherever possible I endeavor to awaken in the minds of some of our correspondence students more initiative than they show themselves in the way of versatility. Often there is a tendency to follow too closely the text without taking advantage of collateral reading and outside experiences. And then to have them express those thoughts with a confidence is my desire.

I am sending you a carbon copy of the letter that I have written Mr. Schroeder, and I am returning herewith his lessons with an explanation of why I have been a little slow.

Thanking you for calling my attention to the matter,
I am

Very cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
