

VIII. Well, boys, tonight is the big night. We've been looking forward to this one for a long time, haven't we? You'll whip these boys tonight. I know you will because I know we've got a ball club here that is not 5 men each playing for himself but 5 men who work as one. We've gone over their ~~weak~~ and their strong points. You have all the advantage of good scouting. Now let's run over their team just a minute. They'll play a man-for-man defense so pass them to death. Keep them running. Take your time at the beginning of the game. Pass the ball around to test out their defense. Now when you're on defense you'll play a shifting zone and shift fast. Don't let that man with the ball open a second. Taylor is their star. He'll be number 66. He's tall and they'll put him on a post. He's deadly with either right or left hand off that post so keep him bottled. Don't let them pass in to him. If they do watch him. Charlie, you'll be playing the center slot in the defense so you'll be guarding him most of the time. Here is the thing to remember. He'll always
