

fake one way then shoot the other. For instance he'll feint to the left, then swing to the right shooting with his left hand. Or he might do it vice versa.

Don't fall for that fake. Let him feint one way, then you be waiting for him when he comes around.

You boys have been looking forward to this game for a long time. You're set to go. Everything says you should win, but remember this, all the dope is clear off on this game. If you're going to win it you're going to have to beat a good club.

Now, remember this. I probably want you to win this game as bad as you want to but let's do it fair and square. Don't start anything. If they get rough the referee will take care of them.

It's not whether you won or lost that I'm concerned with but how you played the game. Be sportsmen first.

Now let's go whip that team.
